

What do I do when I get there?

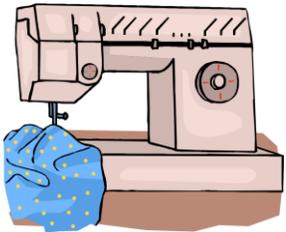

When you arrive at the Conference Center, park in the loading zone at the back of the building. Check in at the Committee Registration Desk in the main sewing room and pick up your packet. Overnighters will get their room assignment. Then you can select your sewing space (see a committee member if you need help) and off-load your supplies and luggage.

After you off-load, please move your car as soon as possible to the upper parking lot so others can use the loading zone. Review everything in your packet and set up your sewing space.

Quilt Retreat

Fall

October 22-27, 2019

Roxbury Holiness Camp

C.B. Byers Conference Center

13763 Cumberland Hwy

Orrstown, PA 17244

We hope you will join us for a time of relaxation, fun and creativity. Whether you've "retreated" a hundred times, or if this will be your first one, we hope you will use the info inside to help make your experience the best it can be.

What is Retreat?

Basically, a quilt retreat provides a place for you to totally immerse yourself in your passion for quilting. Surrounded by the energy of other creative sew-aholics and free from those little things that distract you at home, you will be amazed at what you can accomplish!

The Retreat Committee strives to provide everyone a congenial and comfortable atmosphere that allows you to concentrate on whatever projects you bring. You can come just for the day and bring your own food (new! an evening meal option is available for day attendees!), or stay at the lodge and have your meals provided. We also enjoy demos, occasional outside vendors, professional machine cleaning (fee), door prizes and a Quilter's Yard Sale.

Think you are too much of a beginner? You will literally be surrounded by sewists eager to help. Want to be inspired? Check out the amazing works of art being created around you. When you need a break, visit the snack table, take a stroll on the grounds, or sign up for a massage (fee).

All this is provided for a very reasonable cost. Get a registration form from the Retreat Committee or download one from the "Retreat" tab on the guild website: Chambersburgquiltguild.com

We hope you will join us!

What Do I Bring?

For those electing to lodge at Roxbury, linens and towels are provided. Bring your own toiletries and hairdryers. Dinner is available at 5 p.m. at the Dining Hall from Wednesday to Saturday. A 10 a.m. brunch will be served from Thursday to Sunday.

An evening meal option is available for those not lodging at Roxbury or you can provide your own meals. There is a refrigerator available. Please label everything and be sure to take leftovers at the end of retreat. There are also nearby convenience stores and restaurants.

SEWING SUPPLIES: Don't overload! Be sure to pack the power cord and foot pedal for your machine. Remember all your supplies must fit in the workspace you are given.

Several irons, ironing boards, cutting mats and 6"x24" rulers are provided by the committee for everyone's use. One ironing station will be available for fusibles. Free-standing design walls are set up. We are not allowed to adhere anything to the walls of the conference center.

You are welcome to bring anything quilt or sewing related to sell at the Quilter's Yard Sale. Put your name and price on the articles – the money exchange is between buyer and seller. You will have to remove anything left at the end of retreat.
